RAMADA SUITES QUEENSTOWN

Another big month on site with the final floor being poured and structural steel for the roof being assembled.

As expected we have sold out of the first 54 Ramada Serviced Apartments but watch this space as we will release the last 5 units to the market in early 2016! The retail spaces are being released for tenants and available for investors to purchase.

The highlight of the month for the team on site was hosting the team from head office for a Christmas weekend in Queenstown!

Message from the Safari team:

We are at the end of an extremely successful year with sales peaking in September, two developments completed and our biggest project to date ready to go for the New Year.

The Safari team would like to thank everyone involved, for their support and dedication which helped us soar to new heights in 2015!

May you and your loved ones have a wonderful festive season and a prosperous 2016.
