

SAFARI NEWS LETTER

January 2016

Welcome to 2016 and we at Safari are bracing ourselves for yet another huge year. This will include the opening of both Ramada Queenstown and Ramada Albany, along with releasing new exciting projects.

RAMADA SUITES QUEENSTOWN

News from site is that the roof is on and the windows will be completed soon with painting well underway on the 1st Floor. After selling out of the 54 Ramada Serviced Apartments we released 5 units on Level 3 with a management contract and 180 days free stay to the market and already 3 of these have been sold.

Of the 9 available retail units, 3 have already been leased with 6 remaining units available to be leased and will be available for investors in due course.

RAMADA ALBANY, AUCKLAND

Ramada Albany has achieved both Resource and Building consents and works are underway on site. With the major excavation complete, the piling has now commenced.

We welcome Project Manager Warren Parker to our team who will assist Steve to guide this Project to completion.
